

Teacher _____

Grade: Middle School/High School

Date _____

Technology Activities:

Operate cameras (still and video), scanner, copiers, etc.
Copy and fix up old photos.
Use the internet to search for information.

Reading Activities:

Read student materials and assignments in the unit.
Research and read topics in reference books.

Writing Activities:

Write an autobiography.
Write biography of an elder.
Write brief history of the community.
Transcribe interviews.
Compile collected data from research.

Mathematics Activities:

Arrange historical events on a timeline in chronological order.
Calculate mileage/time needed for field trip travel.
Calculate supplies needed and their cost for the trip.

Arts Activities:

Prepare displays of old photos.
Prepare and illustrate maps of the area.

Community Service Activities:

Collect, document and preserve historic photos for future public use.
Prepare and present exhibit of old photos to the community.
Present written histories of area to local school or library.
Help with Historical Preservation projects such as marking old trails, cemeteries and buildings.

Community Resource Guests:

Elders who have lived long in the area
Officials of various local entities who have had or will have influence on local history
Any visiting historians, scientists or others who have knowledge of the history of the area

Materials/Resources

Community members, especially elders
Research materials (books, maps, etc.) on the local area
Cameras, recorders, copiers, for student use
Internet connection

Health/PE Activities:

Learn about epidemics and effect they had on area population and history.
Learn about development of health care in the area.
Take part in field trips to historic sites.

Science Activities:

Learn about natural resources and effect they have had on local development and settlement.
Learn basics of archaeological investigation at old village/cemetery sites.

Social Sciences Activities:

Research and document progression of historical events in the area.
Relate geographical features to historical travel, trade and settlement patterns in the area.